Join us as we discuss the post-2020 election US tax landscape featuring professionals from Mazars US and Ivins, Phillips & Barker. We will consider various proposals to the federal business and individual income tax regimes. The discussion will address the potential for changes impacting corporations and businesses, high net worth individuals, and taxpayers with international tax issues. We will also discuss investing themes to consider and the market outlook in the aftermath of the pandemic induced recession and the recent election cycle.
