Event Synopsis

Nonprofit stakeholders include donors, board directors and trustees, but most importantly, the populations served by the nonprofit mission. Form 990 continues to be a top tool used by federal and state regulators, the media, and grant makers to assess whether nonprofits work effectively and efficiently to fulfill their qualified exempt purposes and serve the social good. In this Nonprofit Form 990 LIVE webcast, a panel of recognized professionals will share current insights and developments:

- How transparency demonstrates accountability to donors and regulators
- Highlights of an actual Form 990 and key 990 Schedules
- Typical differences between Form 990 and audited financial statements for a fiscal year
- Insights from real field examinations, desk audits, and emerging trends
- Live interactive Q&A session
